QUEEN ELIZABETH II DIAMOND JUBILEE MEDAL

Deputy Mayor Ken Forsythe had the honour of presenting Mayor Phil Vinet with the Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal at the Council Meeting held on February 19th, 2013. Mayor Vinet stated that this award was an honour to receive but was accepting the award on behalf of Council, previous Councils, Staff and Residents of the Municipality of Red Lake. Mayor Vinet stated that this award was deserving of all individuals in our community whose significant achievements have benefited many residents and their organizations. Mayor Vinet advised that the medal will remain in the Municipal Office and will be on public display in the near future.

Congratulations to Mayor Vinet for not only being awarded such a prestigious award but recognizing all individuals in our fine community!

Public Invitation to Logo/Tagline Design Exercise

Branding will help Red Lake stand out and distinguish itself from the “crowd”. If Red Lake does a particularly good job at identifying, understanding and implementing its brand, it will not just serve as a marketing tool. Rather, it could actually be used to guide decision-making and provide a visual method of conveying the essence of our new Strategic Plan. Branding can be the very foundation of what makes Red Lake desirable and good branding can unite us and give us a hook to hang our identity on.

The Mayor and Council of the Municipality of Red Lake invite you to submit a design for a logo and a tagline consistent with the following parameters:

- Maximum 3 colours (with the ability to be reproduced in grayscale without the loss of clarity)
- Size (scalable without loss of clarity, from ½ inch to 20 feet)
- Easily and clearly reproducible
- Concise tagline that augments the logo and provides a community marketing message

Completed submissions must be submitted to the undersigned not later than 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, April 2nd, 2013.

Bill Greenway, Economic Development Officer
Municipality of Red Lake
P.O. Box 1000, 2 Fifth Street
Balmertown, Ontario, P0V 1C0

The logo will be used throughout the Municipality and could adorn letterhead, advertising, signage and news releases. As this logo and tagline are considered critical elements of a consistent and concise branding message, all submissions received will be carefully reviewed. The Municipality reserves the right to approve/reject, modify and/or select elements from submissions received.

The Municipality thanks you for your creativity and appreciates your consideration towards this critical branding initiative.

For more information call Bill Greenway, Economic Development Officer at 735-2096 ext. 238 or email: bgreenway@redlake.ca
