11th Annual Garb-A-Thon

The Garb-a-thon Challenge is a friendly contest between neighbouring communities to retrieve the most bags of litter from public places. The event is co-hosted by the Municipality of Red Lake and Communities in Bloom along with several local sponsors.

This year the challenge has been reissued for

Saturday, May 24th, 2014
9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon

By volunteering for an hour or two, you will be making a valuable contribution to your community. When you have filled a bag with litter, leave it by the road for our roving pick-up crew.

Drop by your local Fire Hall for garbage bags, refreshments and enter your name for a draw-prize!

Municipal Newsletter Vol. 08-14 – Correction

There was an error in the above noted Municipal Newsletter. On page 2 under the General Operating Budget item 4. Public Works & Transportation should read 27.66% - not 8.05%. The dollar amount is correct.

Sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused.
