Heritage Centre News

After 2 years and 12 days, we are excited to announce that the Red Lake Regional Heritage Centre is finally going to be open to the public! On October 1st, the Heritage Centre will have a small opening event to celebrate its reopening. This event will be a soft opening, which will include our donors, partners, staff and volunteers. This “soft” opening will feature the Temporary Gallery, Northern Nature Trading, the Donor Wall and the Cheeky Beaver Gift Shop. The Main Gallery is still under construction and will open in 2022. At this time, we will have a full scale event to fully open the Heritage Centre.

We are delighted to tell you that we have been working very closely with the Red Lake Indian Friendship Centre and will be showcasing many wonderful works of art from their Indigenous art collection. We would also like to let you know that our Gift Shop is restocked, and we have some exciting new items for you to check out.

On October 4th the Heritage Centre will start its normal opening schedule (Mon-Fri 9-5). We know it has been a long time, and we are looking forward to seeing you soon!

Upcoming Community Event

Mark September 25th on your calendars! Plans are currently underway to host a Community Celebration on September 25th.
